Dear Production Company Member

Sixth Form Production Hoodies

As usual, we are organising hoodies for members of the cast and creative of the Sixth Form Production. This year, the production hoodies will be navy blue, over-the-head style with a white Footloose logo on the front; students will also have their name or production role printed on the back. The hoodies are available in extra small, small, medium, large, extra large, extra-extra large and extra-extra-extra large. They will cost £16 each.

The hoodies are not compulsory, but have been very popular in the past. If you would like a personalised Footloose hoodie, please complete the order form online at footloose.edwardcallow.co.uk which will allow you to indicate the size you require and specify your name or production role as you would like it to appear on the reverse. This must be completed by Wednesday 27 September.

Payment should be made via PayPal on the order website. This doesn't require a PayPal account as credit and debit cards are also accepted. If you have any queries regarding the order website, please contact the Technical Director, Edward Callow, at 11edwcal@backwellschool.net.

Please be warned that inappropriate text will not be permitted. If the text you submit is deemed inappropriate, you will receive a blank hoodie. If you are unsure, please feel free to ask a member of the production team beforehand, but we suggest you don't take any chances.

Yours sincerely
